Evelyn applies her extensive litigation and claims management experience to her work with Shumaker's Claims Management team that develops, implements, and administers SOC1 certified claims management services systems. These systems apply processes to clients' workflow to efficiently manage claims activity, organize information, and generate financial and claims trend reporting. Evelyn has served on both law firm and corporate legal teams and as a risk manager for a S&P 500 company.

Evelyn assists with preparing tailored claim reports and claim trend reports, administering databases, reviewing resolution documentation, allocating costs, coordinating funding of indemnity and invoice payments, and managing the SOC1 audit process. Alongside her role on the claims management team, Evelyn uses her deep understanding of risk management and insurance to assist attorneys with insurance coverage matters.

Evelyn enjoys exploring natural areas by hiking and kayaking. At home, she loves to cook with family and friends, read, and boat on Lake Erie.
