Tom's practice includes acting as outside general counsel for small- and medium-sized businesses. He has substantial experience in obtaining injunctive relief to prevent unfair competition and the unauthorized disclosure of trade secrets. Tom is the former Managing Partner of the Toledo office and former Chairman of the firm's Management Committee.

Clients look to Tom to help them identify and solve a host of legal issues, including representing individuals and business clients in commercial disputes involving:

- Business torts
- Unfair competition
- Covenants not to compete
- Theft of trade secrets
- Customer/supplier disputes
- Insurance coverage issues
- Breach of contract claims
- Real property disputes
- Employment claims
- Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) matters
- Tax disputes

Tom is a Fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America, an honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Tom also is a member of Legatus, a membership organization for Catholic business leaders committed to learn, live, and spread the Catholic faith.
