Sam is Florida Bar Board Certified in Real Estate Law with 28 years of experience working with investors, developers, lenders, and governmental entities in the acquisition, development, leasing, financing, and disposition of office and industrial projects, residential developments, apartment complexes, retail facilities, mixed-use projects, senior living facilities, and university facilities.

He is an authorized title insurance agent. He has also worked with clients to assemble teams of consulting professionals to provide strategic legal, title, valuation, and transfer tax analysis in the context of multi-site acquisitions, dispositions, financings, and corporate transactions.

Joel Freedman, a preeminent land-use planner at Shumaker in Florida, hailed the addition of Sam to the team. "The addition of Sam Queirolo to the Shumaker team allows Shumaker to add to the level of service and depth of experience we provide to our clients."

Ron Christaldi, CEO of Shumaker's governmental affairs practice added, "welcoming Sam to the team compliments from a land use perspective the robust local government and public affairs team we have in place to combine relationships with local officials with the know-how necessary to excel for our clients."

Sam received his J.D. from Florida State University College of Law with high honors and has his B.S. in accounting from Florida State University.
