Judge Kevin Braig

Logan County Court of Common Pleas Judge

"It's a marathon, not a sprint."

Q: What is your current position and company?

A. Judge of the Logan County Court of Common Pleas, General Division.

Q: What was your practice area at Shumaker?

A. I was a partner in the Columbus office where I focused my practice on agricultural, environmental, and gaming law.

Q: What do you enjoy most about your career?

A. It is a privilege to have the opportunity to try to help others solve problems they cannot solve by themselves.

Q: What is your favorite Shumaker memory?

A. The first Saddlebrook firm retreat and the first Shumaker Sporting Clays Event.

Q: What news would you like to share about your personal or professional life?

A. Since taking the bench a little more than eight months ago, I have helped eight people take control of their chemical substance addiction and graduate from the Logan County Adult Recovery Court. In another instance, I noticed an unusual facial tic in a Defendant that appeared before me and I mentioned my observation to his lawyer, who did a splendid job of getting him medical attention. He was subsequently diagnosed with Tourette's syndrome and autism, put on medication, and hired full-time by a large corporation. After I gave that Defendant his probation, he asked, "Can I shake your hand?" So I came down from the bench and shook his hand. That was definitely a good day.
