

February 28, 2024

Rob Koenig

School Director
Toledo School for the Arts

Q: When were you at Shumaker and what was your position/practice area?

A: September 1985 through December 31, 2022. I was a litigation partner that specialized in Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) Litigation and Construction Disputes.

Q: What is your current position and company?

A: School Director, Toledo School for the Arts.

Q: What did you enjoy most about your career?

A: Working with great people at Shumaker and assisting clients with issues and disputes.

Q: What is one thing you learned at Shumaker that has benefitted you ever since?

A: Over prepare for meetings/hearings/arbitrations, so you are ready for any issue that may be raised.

Q: What is your favorite memory of your time working at Shumaker?

A: Being a part of a trial team of several other lawyers and paralegals preparing to try a case together for clients that appreciated the work it takes to be ready.

Q: What is the best advice you can give a new attorney?

A: Your reputation is the one thing that you must never allow to be tarnished because you can't get it back.

Q: What news would you like to share about your personal or professional life?

A: My wife Casey and I have four grandchildren (all under the age of five) that we spend as much time with as we possibly can.