ORDER ESTABLISHING PROCEDURES FOR VIDEO HEARINGS

This order establishes procedures for video hearings in this case. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 43, made applicable in this case under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9017, the Court, for good cause in compelling circumstances and with appropriate safeguards, may permit testimony in open court by contemporaneous transmission from another location. The Centers for Disease Control has recommended that all individuals practice "social distancing" and avoid close contact to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus. The Court finds that the need for social distancing constitutes good cause and compelling circumstances to permit court hearings and testimony by video.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED:

1. The Court will conduct the hearing scheduled for October 4, 2021 at 3:00 PM (the "Hearing"), via ZOOM.

2. Parties should arrange to attend the hearing by registering for Zoom Meeting at <https://pacer.flmb.uscourts.gov/fwxflmb/zoom/>.

3. The Court prefers for attorneys and parties to participate in the hearing by video on Zoom. However, parties who wish to listen only, who do not anticipate active participation in the hearing, or who lack the necessary technology to participate by video may attend the hearing by telephone following the procedures set forth below. However, a party who wishes to examine a witness or to make evidentiary objections must attend the hearing by video on Zoom; parties are not permitted to examine witnesses or make evidentiary objections by telephone.

Note: There is no charge for attending a hearing by video or by telephone on Zoom.

Judges Delano, Funk, or McEwen	via CourtCall by calling (888-882-6878) OR by registering for the Zoom Meeting and selecting the audio option by 5:00 p.m. the business day preceding the hearing.
Judges Jennemann, Vaughan, Colton, or Williamson	via Court Solutions by registering at www.court-solutions.com by 5:00 p.m. the business day preceding the hearing.

4. Witnesses must participate by video. Counsel for the party presenting the witness must coordinate all aspects of the witness's participation including designating an estimated time when the witness will connect to the video conference, establishing an off-line method to contact the witness, and implementing safeguards to insure that the witness is sequestered until called to testify. The party sponsoring a remote witness is responsible for supplying all exhibits, deposition transcripts and other needed papers prior to the hearing. Failure to properly sequester a witness may result in sanctions against the attorney and the party calling the witness. Only one participant is permitted per video link, i.e., each participant must use a separate computer and video camera to connect to the hearing.

5. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 43(a), made applicable by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9017, witnesses who testify remotely by contemporaneous transmission, will be sworn in by video, and their testimony will be accepted and binding as if they were testifying live in the courtroom.

6. During the Hearing, all participants must:

- a. Dress in appropriate court attire (if appearing by video);
- b. Mute their microphone when not speaking;
- c. Wait until called upon by the Court before speaking;
- d. Not speak over other participants;
- e. Participate from a quiet location; and
- f. Announce themselves prior to speaking.

7. Parties are reminded of the requirements of Local Rule 9070-1 regarding the filing and use of exhibits. Local Rule 9070-1(c)(2)'s requirement that paper copies of exhibits to be used by witnesses be provided to opposing counsel and the Court is waived, except that a party shall deliver a binder or binders of exhibits at least forty-eight (48) hours before the Hearing to:

- a. Any pro se party;
- b. Any party that requests a copy; and
- c. All witnesses.

8. Participants are reminded that photographing, recording or further broadcasting the Hearing is strictly prohibited. Violation of these prohibitions may result in sanctions. All hearings will continue to be recorded using the Court's official digital recording system. The process for requesting an official transcript has not changed.

The Clerk is directed to serve a copy of this order on all interested parties.
