The Court is in receipt of your letter received by the Court on 9-12-22. Unfortunately, your request cannot be processed by this office for the following reason(s):

X We are returning your document(s), as we have no record of this debtor and/or case number pending in this Division. Please check your records to determine the proper Court. Debtor + case number not provided

 Proof of Claim. To file a proof of claim on-line, please go to www.flmb.uscourts.gov, click on Creditors link at the top of the page, select Electronic Proof of Claim. A fillable B10 proof of claim form is provided on the website and supporting documents, such as statements of account, invoices, ledger cards, etc. should be attached to the proof of claim. If not filing on-line, Proof of Claim form may be obtained at the Courts website: <http://www.uscourts.gov/FormsAndFees/Forms/BankruptcyForms.aspx> or at any bankruptcy clerk's office. A Proof of Claim may be mailed to the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. Submitted Proofs of Claim, and all supporting documentation or attachments, should redact: Social Security or taxpayer identification numbers; dates of birth; names of minor children; and financial account numbers, in compliance with Fed. R. Bank. P. 9037. This requirement applies to all documents, including attachments.

 The Clerk's Office is unable to provide you with the forms necessary to file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code. The official bankruptcy forms can be downloaded from our web site, www.flmb.uscourts.gov/forms. Click on the link for U.S. Courts Official Forms - Official Forms and Instructions. You may also purchase the forms from a legal stationary or office supply store.

 The Bankruptcy Court has no jurisdiction over credit reporting agencies. The Fair Credit Reporting Act, 6 U.S.C. Section 605, is the law that controls credit-reporting agencies. You may contact the Federal Trade Commission, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Education Division, Washington, D.C. 20580; their phone number is (202)326-2222; their website address is www.ftc.gov/contact. That agency can provide further information on re-establishing credit and addressing credit problems. You can also directly contact the credit bureau(s) reporting the information – e.g., Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion.

 You may review electronic cases at the Clerk's Office. Copies of documents may be purchased from the Clerk's Office at a cost of fifty cents per page.

Respectfully,
