BearCom Acquires Canadian Surveillance Shop to Expand Video Security

US-based integrator of voice, security and data solutions BearCom has acquired Canada-based commercial security integrator The Surveillance Shop (TSS) to support BearCom's expansion into video security solutions, the company said.

Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

TSS provides standalone and fully integrated security solutions for small, medium, and enterprise customers across Canada and the United States.

TSS accelerates BearCom's vision of providing comprehensive solutions to meet customers' needs across mission-critical voice, security, and data solutions.

Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, and Norton Rose Fulbright acted as legal advisers to BearCom. Ernst & Young acted as financial advisor and Bennett Jones LLP acted as legal advisor to TSS.

BearCom is Motorola's largest Channel Partner in North America, and a provider and integrator of wireless voice, security, and data solutions across the US and Canada.
