Shumaker Advisors Adds Ex-Fla. Senate Aide

By Law360 Staff

Law360 (September 11, 2024, 11:41 AM EDT) -- The lobbying arm of Shumaker Loop & Kendrick LLP, Shumaker Advisors, has added a former staffer in the Florida state senate to run the government affairs operations of its state team.

On top of spearheading lobbying efforts for clients and engaging with state officials and lawmakers, Alex C. Young will also manage the administration of Shumaker Advisors' Tallahassee office. Shumaker announced Young's addition Monday.

"We are excited to have Alex join the team," Alan Suskey, an executive vice president with Shumaker Advisors and a principal with its state practice, said in a statement. "Her deep understanding of state government and her hands-on experience with key decision makers will help us continue to provide top-notch service to our clients."

Alex C. Young

Young was an aide to Florida state Sen. Danny Burgess, a Republican representing parts of Hillsborough and Pasco counties whose roles include chairing his house's committee on elections and ethics. Burgess was elected to the state Senate in 2020 and previously served in Florida's House of Representatives.

In terms of Young's own resume, the Shumaker also highlighted her time with the governor's Office of Policy and Budget.
