Jamie serves as the Executive Assistant and Special Project Coordinator for the Florida offices of Shumaker Advisors, providing high-level administrative and operational support. In her role, Jamie manages a wide range of responsibilities including executive scheduling, project coordination, client communications, and the planning and execution of client events and special initiatives. She is known for her strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and ability to effectively manage multiple priorities in fast-paced environments.

Working cross functionally with departments across the organization, Jamie plays an integral role in supporting collaboration, streamlining processes, and ensuring seamless day-to-day operations. Her proactive approach, professionalism, and commitment to client service make her a trusted resource to both colleagues and leadership alike.

Outside of the office, Jamie enjoys spending time with her two sons, relaxing at the beach, fishing, and giving back to her community through volunteer work.
