An eighth-generation Floridian, Alan has built an advocacy career representing world-renowned research institutes, technology companies, small businesses, and clients in both Tallahassee and Washington, D.C. He has also represented complex and extensive client matters in front of local elected officials throughout Florida.

Alan previously served as president of a boutique lobbying practice, with offices in Tallahassee and St. Petersburg, which focused on the Tampa Bay region and Florida's legislative and executive branches. His career experience includes:

- Policy and appropriations issues for some of the largest corporations and associations in Florida
- Representing nonprofits and municipalities throughout the state on appropriations issues, resulting in hundreds of millions of dollars in state funding
- Serving on Capitol Hill as the military aide to the late U.S. Representative Bill Young, former Chairman of the Appropriations Committee and Chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense. Alan's primary focus was on defense, intelligence, and homeland security projects in Representative Young's district in Pinellas County
- Serving as the External Affairs Director of SRI International's
