developers, and private funds on tax-deferred investments in Opportunity Zones. Specifically, Nick advises on the formation and management of Qualified Opportunity Funds and Qualified Opportunity Zone Businesses, which he has lectured on at various events, including Florida ACG Capital Connection and the White House Opportunity & Entrepreneurship Summit.

Outside of the office, Nick is an adventure seeker and avid outdoorsman. After passing the bar exam, Nick spent three weeks solo hiking the John Muir Trail. Since then, he has climbed Mount Rainier, toured the Patagonian Andes by motorcycle, and thru-hiked both the Annapurna Circuit and the Three Passes Trek, where he summited a 20,000-foot mountain known as Island Peak. Closer to home, Nick enjoys scalloping in Crystal River, boating in Tampa Bay, and exploring Florida's many state parks.
