LinkedIn VCard

A trusted client advocate, Jill represents clients in complex disputes—from commercial business and trademark to labor and employment—in state and federal courts. She also guides clients through mediation proceedings, helping them achieve favorable settlements outside of the courtroom.

Jill's broad litigation experience includes conducting discovery, drafting dispositive motions, handling depositions and hearings, and preparing cases for trial

Prior to joining Shumaker, Jill worked at an AmLaw 50 firm and gained valuable experience and insight in complex litigation, including class action lawsuits, government enforcement actions, business disputes, mass tort litigation, insurance coverage, and other areas. She has a long history of community involvement with organizations such as The Junior League of Tampa, Tampa Connection, and the Hillsborough County Bar Association's Bar Leadership Institute.

Outside the office, Jill enjoys running, traveling, rowing, and hiking.
