Michael is a member of the Litigation & Disputes Service Line, where he focuses on insurance recovery. He regularly assists policyholders in complex recovery efforts under property, commercial liability, and business interruption policies among others, from the inception of the claim through the final settlement.

Michael has experience assisting both businesses and individuals in contractual disputes, such as:

- Employment contracts
- Residential construction
- Landlord/tenant agreements
- Non-compete and non-solicitation agreements
- State and federal appeals and alternative-dispute forums

Dedicated to helping others in the study of law, Michael serves as a consultant for The Ohio State University mock trial team and is an Assistant Coach of the Jackson High School Mock Trial team. Michael also enjoys spending time with his wife, Hannah, and his family, as well as playing in his local volleyball league, drawing, and helping with his father's construction business.
