

Alex C. Young

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS
OPERATIONS, STATE TEAM

Alex brings several years of diverse experience working on multiple sides of the political system to her role at Shumaker Advisors. She assists with government affairs operations for the state team, helping to manage the administration of the Tallahassee office and ensure that clients are served at the highest level possible.

Prior to joining Shumaker Advisors, Alex worked as an aide for Florida Senator Danny Burgess, as well as in the Governor's Office of Policy and Budget. Her detailed knowledge of the operations of state government and experience working alongside a variety of state elected officials is a value added to colleagues and clients alike. A graduate of Clemson University, Alex earned a B.S. in Agribusiness with a minor in Political Science.

Outside of the office, Alex enjoys spending time outdoors with her two rescue dogs, gardening, and being on the water.
