Laura is a member of Shumaker's Intellectual Property Service Line, bringing experience in intellectual property (IP) portfolio management and litigation. Her practice includes advising clients on brand protection strategies, handling complex IP disputes, and managing IP assets to maximize their value.

Before joining Shumaker, Laura spent more than seven years practicing in an IP group of a New York law firm, where she focused on trademark and copyright enforcement in both state and federal courts.

A native Spanish speaker, Laura provides strategic counsel to a diverse client base, helping businesses safeguard their innovations in an increasingly global marketplace.
