VCard

John is a paralegal in Shumaker’s Litigation & Disputes Service Line, where he supports attorneys representing large financial institutions and high-net-worth individuals in complex matters involving securities violations and contractual covenant disputes. Known for his attention to detail and strong organizational skills, John plays a key role in managing high-stakes litigation efficiently and effectively.

With nearly five years of paralegal experience, John has worked on cases from inception through discovery and trial. His background includes significant work in personal injury and insurance defense, providing him with a strong foundation in litigation strategy, document management, and trial preparation.

John is valued for his thoroughness, dependability, and ability to manage multiple priorities in fast-paced legal environments.

Outside of work, John enjoys spending time with family and friends, attending church, working out, and watching sports.
