Jen is a Florida Registered Paralegal with more than 20 years of experience supporting attorneys and clients in complex litigation. She is known for her ability to manage intricate details, organize large volumes of discovery, and anticipate the needs of attorneys and clients alike.

With a broad range of experience spanning state and federal matters, Jen brings clarity and structure to complicated case files by managing e-discovery, summarizing investigative records, coordinating with experts, and preparing exhibits and witnesses for trial. She is highly regarded for her calm, solutions-focused approach that helps clients feel informed and prepared at every stage of litigation.

Jen's passion for the legal field is rooted in helping people navigate stressful and challenging circumstances. She takes pride in being approachable, detail-oriented, and responsible—qualities that allow her to serve as both a resource and a steady presence for clients and trial teams.

Outside of the office, Jen is a proud mother of four—two high-energy boys and two girls. She enjoys spending quality time with her children, cheering them on in their activities, and celebrating their achievements, including her daughter's leadership in the U.S. Army Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC). In addition to family, she pursues small business ventures and loves taking
