Diligent and committed to obtaining the best outcomes possible for his clients, Chase practices in Shumaker's Litigation & Disputes Service Line, where he handles a wide variety of disputes in an efficient and effective manner.

Chase is a graduate of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where his in-class and extracurricular experiences lent him a unique perspective and insights from which his clients greatly benefit. These experiences include:

- Serving as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Law and Public Policy
- Working as a Research Assistant with Professor Cook
- Serving as a Teaching Assistant for a criminal law course
- Competing and coaching for arbitration on the Alternative Disputes Resolution Team

During law school, Chase earned Book Awards in Advanced Torts, Criminal Law, and Veterans Assistance Clinic. He was also recognized with the National Law School Veterans Clinic Consortium Student Service Award.

In his spare time, Chase likes to watch baseball, play chess, and travel.
