Sandy is a seasoned paralegal who has assisted in all facets of litigation—from client intake to trial. With over 20 years of experience in the legal field, she brings a proven skillset and a commitment to helping clients secure the best outcomes possible.

Sandy began her legal career as a receptionist for an attorney on Long Island while earning her Paralegal Certification at Hofstra University. Over the course of her career, she has served in paralegal and legal assistant roles in New York, Florida, and North Carolina, gaining broad, hands-on experience in litigation support at every stage of a matter. During a temporary assignment in Seattle, Washington, she was even tapped to step in as lead paralegal on a case involving the reality television series Deadliest Catch.

Outside of work, Sandy enjoys playing board games, hiking, listening to music, and spending time with her husband and two cats, London and Winston-Arthas.
