A highly skilled litigator, Jaime has extensive experience representing owners, developers, landlords and commercial tenants in all phases of litigation and appellate matters. His advocacy skills frequently result in victories for his clients at the trial and appellate levels. With his broad industry knowledge in an array of real estate and complex commercial matters, Jaime has represented a wide variety of clients in his near three-decade career, including some of the country's largest landlords. He has successfully litigated disputes and handled matters arising out of commercial leases and contracts for the purchase and sale of real property, easement disputes, and commercial landlord/tenant litigation. In addition, his keen business sense and negotiation skills have consistently led to favorable settlements for his clients, including the resolution of numerous seemingly intractable stalemates that have freed clients from the inherent expense and uncertainty of litigation. Jaime also has a breadth of experience in complex commercial disputes and arbitrations arising from mergers and acquisitions, shareholder disputes, and tax-related controversies.

Recognized as one of America's best lawyers for more than a decade, Jaime has:
