VCard

Zach advises public and private companies of all sizes on a wide range of corporate matters, including:

- Corporate governance
- Commercial transactions
- Mergers, acquisitions, and dispositions
- Reorganizations
- Joint ventures

Known for building strong, long-term relationships, Zach takes the time to understand each client's business, goals, and challenges—earning the trust of companies across industries, from real estate and health care to manufacturing, insurance, and food. He is particularly valued for his role as outside general counsel, providing pragmatic, day-to-day guidance on everything from contracts to corporate compliance to strategic transactions, allowing clients to stay focused on growth and operations.

Zach serves as the relationship partner for Welltower Inc., one of the firm's largest clients, coordinating across practice areas—including real estate, litigation, employment, environmental, intellectual property, and tax—to deliver seamless, full-service legal support.

Zach is a former scholar of Romantic-period English literature (before it was cool). Zach and his wife have four children and two
