VCard

Jarrold focuses his litigation practice on representing financial and investment advisors transitioning from firm to firm and has advised on some of the largest transitions in the country. He has significant litigation experience in State and Federal Court, FINRA arbitrations, and has been class counsel in numerous class actions. Jarrold is one of the few lawyers in the United States who have successfully brought Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations claims in federal court and has handled dozens of TRO cases both prosecuting and defending throughout the country. He has substantial knowledge in electronic discovery and has assisted numerous corporations in data breach incidents.

With extensive experience in the securities industry, Jarrold has been regularly consulted regarding employment and recruitment issues and has been called upon to restructure a number of firms' employment contracts, restrictive covenants, and promissory notes to reflect industry best practices. Jarrold regularly represents individuals and broker dealers in cases involving restrictive covenants, raiding, and the Protocol for Broker Recruiting. He has represented thousands of national and international financial and investment advisors across the nation in matters such as:

- Firm to Firm Transitions
- TRO Prosecution and Defense

- Claims for wrongful termination
- Deferred compensation claims
- Promissory note disputes
- U-5 defamation
- Defense of garden leave (notice) provisions in employment agreements

In addition to his busy practice, Jarrod is devoted to his wife and four children.
