VCard

Practicing law for over four decades, David has extensive experience in business litigation with a focus on antitrust, patent infringement, and other intellectual property (IP) cases. He represents corporate clients in various industries, including banking and financial institutions, health care, and technology.

Recently recognized for his 50 years as a member of the Toledo Bar, David has been a leading legal figure in patent right infringement cases and complex litigation cases, including:

- Representing a hospital association in an action against the State of Ohio challenging the compensation to hospitals for workers' compensation claims, which resulted in a multi-million dollar payment to the hospitals
- Successfully defending a physician hospital organization in a state antitrust action
- Successfully defending a health care technology company against numerous lawsuits related to record privacy issues
