

Rick Kriseman

OF COUNSEL

With more than 30 years of legal experience and 20 years of combined government and political accomplishments, Rick brings to Shumaker a depth of experience at both the state and local levels. Rick served as the 53rd mayor of St. Petersburg, Florida from 2014 to 2022. Under his leadership, St. Petersburg was ranked as Florida's best-managed and fiscally strongest city and received numerous accolades, including being named one of the top places to visit in the world by the New York Times and one of the 20 best places to live by Southern Living. Prior to becoming mayor, Rick served for six years in the Florida House of Representatives, serving as his caucus's Policy Chairman, and spent six years as a St. Petersburg City Councilman.

Rick's extensive accomplishments throughout his public service include:

- In his first term, delivering on his promise to build a new pier and police station, establish community-oriented policing, implement curbside recycling, and elevate St. Pete's profile in the world
- Preparing St. Pete for a changing climate, transitioning the city to 100 percent clean energy, and expanding preserved green space. Public service social network Apolitical named

PRIMARY LOCATION

Tampa, FL

Rick one of the world's "100 most influential climate policy leaders," and he led the U.S. Conference of Mayors' Committee on the Environment

- As a proponent of alternative transportation, leading the effort to launch the Cross Bay Ferry and working to adopt a Complete Streets policy, implement the city's bike share and e-scooter program, and introduce the first Bus Rapid Transit service in the Tampa Bay Region
- Helping to reduce the poverty rate among the city's African American residents to an all-time low. Inspired by former President Barack Obama's "My Brother's Keeper" initiative, Rick launched "My Brother's and Sister's Keeper" to address persistent opportunity gaps and the anti-gun violence "Not My Son" campaign
- While ensuring the continued success for the city's largest employers, championing small businesses, entrepreneurs, and artists. The United States Conference of Mayors recognized Rick with its Partner America 2018 Small Business Advocate award.
