COLUMBUS, OH – Shumaker Advisors' Ami Williams has been selected to serve as Treasurer of the Fairfield Heritage Trail Association, deepening her dedication to Fairfield County. Ami also serves as Vice President of Fairfield County Park District Commission, a Founding Member of Lancaster Alive, and former Vice President of Fairfield County Heritage Association.

"I am confident that Ami's commitment to the community and her forward thinking will result in the expansion of recreational trail infrastructure in Lancaster," said Lancaster Mayor and outgoing Treasurer of the Fairfield Heritage Trail Association David Scheffler. "She is a welcome addition to the Board."

The Fairfield Heritage Trail Association is a nonprofit organization committed to developing a network of public trails linking all of Fairfield County, promoting active transportation, including recreational trail building, and providing safe routes for pedestrians and bicyclists.

As Shumaker Advisors Director of Client Development, Ami's strategic research and planning expertise, finance experience, targeted solutions, and business acumen when connecting businesses to state and local government is a proven benefit to clients. As a lobbyist and government relations specialist, Ami is renowned for her knack for fundraising, compliance, organizing, management, and grassroots mobilization.
