Nationally Recognized Lobbyist Jason Ouimet Joins Shumaker Advisors

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A nationally recognized government affairs leader at the forefront of the Washington, D.C. lobbying industry is joining Shumaker Advisors. Beginning March 6, Jason Ouimet will serve as Senior Vice President of Federal Affairs at Shumaker Advisors.

"Jason is one of the most well-known and respected lobbyists in the nation and having him join Shumaker Advisors is a significant win for both our team and clients," said Ryan Walker, Senior Vice President of Federal Affairs at Shumaker Advisors. "He is hardworking, honest, and decisive. And with more than 20 years of experience in U.S. legislative and regulatory policymaking, Jason will certainly be an asset to help our clients achieve their goals."

"I am honored and excited to join the prestigious team at Shumaker Advisors," Jason said. "I look forward to using my years of knowledge and insights to help clients navigate the legislative and executive branches of the federal government. In this chapter of my career, I'm set on making an even greater impact and difference for those I serve."

Prior to joining Shumaker Advisors, Jason spent the past 18 years at the National Rifle Association where he most recently served as the Executive Director of the National Rifle Association Institute for Legislative Action (NRA-ILA), where he was responsible for overseeing and directing the political and legislative arm of the NRA. Before joining the NRA, Jason served as a Legislative Assistant to former Senator Saxby Chambliss (R-GA) and as an analyst for both the National Republican Senatorial Committee and the Republican National Committee.
