Shumaker Expands Wealth Strategies Team with New Associate Appointment

CHARLESTON, SC — Shumaker welcomes Associate Hannah Campbell to its Wealth Strategies Service Line, further solidifying the firm's commitment to delivering top-tier legal services to clients seeking guidance in wealth management, estate planning, and asset protection.

"Hannah is poised to play a pivotal role in advancing our firm's mission to provide tailored legal strategies that align with our clients' financial goals," said G.P. Diminich, Shumaker's Wealth Strategies Regional Service Line Leader and Charleston Managing Partner.

Shumaker's Wealth Strategies Service Line boasts a team of 20 lawyers who are well versed in the intricate landscape of wealth preservation and strategic planning. By adding Hannah to the team, Shumaker reinforces its reputation as a go-to law firm for individuals, families, and businesses seeking comprehensive legal counsel to navigate the complexities of wealth accumulation, protection, and transfer.

"I am honored to join Shumaker's Wealth Strategies Service Line and contribute to the firm's tradition of excellence," Hannah stated. "I look forward to collaborating with my colleagues to provide innovative, tailored solutions that meet our clients' unique wealth management needs."

Hannah is a hardworking attorney who is known for being a dedicated advocate to both her clients and her colleagues. She focuses her practice on estate planning, estate administration, business creation/succession planning, and estate litigation.

While attending the University of South Carolina School of Law, Hannah interned for a boutique probate law firm in Birmingham, Alabama, where she gained extensive experience in the world of estate planning and administration and began her law career after graduation. Throughout law school, Hannah was also the Chair of the ambassadors program, a member of the mock trial team, and a participant in the pro bono program through both Guardian Ad Litem and volunteer tax assistance organizations.
