TAMPA, FL — Shumaker continues to demonstrate its commitment to meeting clients' evolving needs with the addition of Associates Alexis D. Moore and Hillary E. Thornton, who join the firm as members of the Litigation and Disputes Service Line.

"We are thrilled to welcome Alexis and Hillary to our team. With businesses expanding and markets becoming more competitive, there is a growing demand for litigation attorneys. Shumaker is committed to meeting clients' evolving needs by fostering consistent growth and adaptability," said Jeff Fabian, Partner and Litigation and Disputes Regional Service Line Leader.

Driven by a passion for advocating for others from a young age, Alexis has experience working on insurance litigation matters, where she zealously represented clients in property damage and insurance coverage matters. In addition, during law school, Alexis worked as an intern for the Office of the Public Defender Eighth Judicial Circuit.

Hillary is a dedicated and detail-oriented lawyer, focusing on general litigation matters. With more than four years of experience practicing law, Hillary is skilled at handling cases from inception to trial, which includes conducting depositions, mediations, arbitrations, and hearings. In addition, she is practiced in motion drafting and excels in client communication throughout the legal process.

The announcement of Alexis and Hillary joining the firm comes on the heels of the recent news that Shumaker opened a St. Petersburg office, which included the acquisition of renowned litigator David Delrahim.
