Alison P. Gomez de la Vega Graduates from Tampa Connection

TAMPA, FL – Shumaker lawyer Alison P. Gomez de la Vega, a dedicated and active member of the Tampa community, has graduated from the Tampa Connection program. This milestone marks a significant achievement in her continuous efforts to contribute to and engage with the community both personally and professionally.

Alison's participation in the rigorous leadership development program has equipped her with enhanced skills and insights that will further her contributions to the numerous organizations with which she is involved. She currently serves as a Provisional Member Mentor for the Junior League of Tampa, Co-Chair of the Member Services Committee for the Hillsborough County Bar Association Young Lawyers' Division, and a member of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers' Division.

"I am incredibly honored to have been a part of Tampa Connection, which deepened my ability to drive impactful initiatives and support the growth and well-being of the Tampa Bay area," said Alison. "The experiences and connections I have gained through this program are invaluable."

A client-centered and dependable attorney, Alison devotes her practice to commercial litigation, construction litigation, and the defense of personal injury and wrongful death suits. Clients benefit from her previous experience representing the interests of both businesses and individuals in corporate and commercial litigation.
