Shumaker Welcomes Experienced Litigator to Strengthen Business and Real Estate Litigation Practice

ST. PETERSBURG, FL – Kathryn Copeland, a highly experienced litigator, has joined Shumaker's Litigation and Disputes Service line as Senior Counsel. With more than a decade of practice, she brings a wealth of experience in business and real estate litigation, enhancing the firm's ability to advocate for clients in a variety of matters.

"Kathryn is a great addition to the firm and we are fortunate to have her join our team. Her extensive experience and dedication to law will significantly bolster our business and real estate litigation capabilities," said St. Petersburg Managing Partner Mindi Richter.

Kathryn represents a diverse range of clients in state and federal court. Her practice encompasses business disputes, contracts, collections, evictions, and other complex civil disputes. With a proven track record of successful outcomes, she is well-equipped to navigate the intricacies of litigation and provide strategic counsel to Shumaker's clients.

In addition to her legal acumen, Kathryn is deeply committed to giving back to the community. She actively contributes her time to various philanthropic and professional organizations, including serving as the Vice Chair of the Business Law Section of the St. Petersburg Bar Association and she is a member of The Collective at Bay Area Legal Services

Shumaker's commitment to excellence extends beyond the courtroom, as the firm continuously strives to make a positive impact in the communities it serves. The addition of Kathryn is an extension of Shumaker's dedication to both professional excellence and community engagement.
