Malcolm J. Pitchford to Present at "Quiet Title Actions in Florida" Seminar

TAMPA, FL – Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that Malcolm J. Pitchford will speak at a seminar sponsored by the National Business Institute (BNI) on "Quiet Title Actions in Florida" on June 17, 2015 at the Tampa Westshore Marriott. Quiet title actions are currently on the rise from a number of different scenarios – tax deed sales, "robo-signing" and other fraudulent foreclosure acts, mineral right issues, break in chain, adverse possession, and legal description errors are just a few of the issues that can initiate the need for a lawsuit to establish title to the property and remove any clouds. This seminar will explain current procedures, discovery strategies, jurisdictional challenges, rules and legal requirements involved in these complicated lawsuits. Legal strategies for identifying parties and getting service on them, review lis pendens and complaint requirements, gain practical negotiation strategies and more will be discussed at this seminar.
