TALLAHASSEE, FL – Shumaker Partner Virginia "Ginny" Dailey has been awarded the prestigious Martha Barnett Women Lawyers of Achievement Award. This esteemed accolade recognizes outstanding women lawyers from Florida's Second Judicial Circuit who have demonstrated professional excellence, served as mentors, and advocated for the advancement of women in the legal profession.

With over two decades of experience, Ginny is renowned for her unparalleled knowledge of the law, excellent legal abilities, and steadfast ethical standards. Judges and clients alike count on her to provide accurate legal analysis, making her one of the most trusted and respected attorneys in her field. Recognized as top-notch and the best of the best, Ginny's pragmatic, smart, and charismatic approach consistently delivers innovative solutions to help clients achieve their strategic objectives.

Championing women in the legal profession and community, Ginny is a member of the Tallahassee Women Lawyers Association, Big Bend Habitat for Humanity Women's Champion, and Sister Girls Network (2019-present), uniting women, breaking down barriers, and building community.

"Advancing women in the legal profession and advocating for women's rights under the law are both essential in creating a community where women can connect, support each other, and build their careers together," said Ginny. "I had the opportunity to work with Martha Barnett while I was in law school. Having admired her bold leadership for many years, it is a special honor to receive the Martha Barnett Women Lawyers of Achievement Award and to continue advocating for women in the legal profession."

In addition, Ginny was recently accepted as a member of the Federation of Regulatory Counsel (FORC), becoming one of only four members in Florida to hold this distinction.
