ST. PETERSBURG, FL – Shumaker Partner David Delrahim, a well-known attorney and community leader, has been re-elected to the Downtown Business Association's (DBA) Board of Directors. With this most recent appointment, David furthers his commitment to serving the organizations and entrepreneurs who make up St. Petersburg's thriving business community.

Founded in 1973, the Downtown Business Alliance (DBA) is a nonprofit organization comprised of local companies who work to strengthen the prosperity of Downtown St. Petersburg. David will provide strategic counsel to the DBA and help the organization achieve its mission to promote St. Petersburg as vibrant, safe and friendly waterfront environment with ample entertainment, education, medical care, and business resources to support citizens.

"With a booming business community, vibrant arts scene, and state-of-the-art medical facilities, there is so much to enjoy about Downtown St. Petersburg," said David. "I am extremely honored to be reappointed to the DBA to help promote all the city has to offer."

David stands as a prominent lawyer, skillfully navigating the complexities of business, real estate, and bankruptcy litigation. As a trusted advocate, he represents an extensive array of clients across diverse industries, serving as a general counsel for organizations spanning construction, manufacturing, medical services, real estate development, and hospitality. David is recognized for his unparalleled dedication to achieving favorable outcomes and upholding the legal integrity essential to his clients' success.
