Shumaker Attorney Daniel S. Roy Graduates from Leadership Toledo

TOLEDO, OH—Daniel S. Roy, an associate in Shumaker’s Real Estate practice, has successfully graduated from Leadership Toledo, a notable program dedicated to developing effective community leaders who are passionate about making a positive impact in the region.

“We are proud of Dan’s graduation from Leadership Toledo and the commitment he has shown not only to his professional development but also to strengthening the Toledo community,” said Reed Hauptman, Managing Partner of Shumaker’s Toledo office. “Leadership Toledo is a cornerstone of civic engagement in our region, and Dan’s participation highlights Shumaker’s dedication to community involvement and leadership at all levels of the firm.”

Dan focuses his legal practice on commercial real estate matters, including purchase and sale agreements, leasing, landlord-tenant issues, and construction, land use, and zoning matters. He has guided clients through the acquisition and sale of a wide range of property types, including apartment complexes, nursing homes, hospitals, office buildings, and industrial facilities.

In his transactional practice, Dan manages the full lifecycle of real estate deals. He negotiates purchase agreements; reviews titles, zoning laws, and surveys; drafts closing documents; and oversees the timeline to ensure smooth and efficient closings. His attention to detail and practical approach have made him a valuable resource for clients navigating complex real estate transactions.
