TAMPA, FL – Shumaker is pleased to announce that Arianna N. Hernandez has joined Shumaker as an associate in the Litigation & Disputes Service Line, where she represents clients in a wide range of complex civil litigation matters in both state and federal courts. Her practice includes personal injury, product liability, and construction defect disputes, where she brings a strategic, client-focused approach to each case.

"Arianna is a talented and driven litigator whose diverse experience enhances our ability to provide creative and effective legal solutions," said Jeff Fabian, Partner and Litigation & Disputes Regional Service Line Leader at Shumaker. "We are excited to welcome her to the team where she will assist the diverse range of challenges facing clients today."

In addition to her litigation work, Arianna holds a Certificate of International Law, further broadening her perspective and deepening her understanding of cross-border legal frameworks. Her global mindset and detail-oriented approach make her a strong advocate for clients navigating multifaceted legal challenges.

Shumaker is proud to continue investing in top legal talent and looks forward to the meaningful contributions Arianna will bring to the firm and its clients.
