TAMPA, FL – Luis A. Silva, an attorney in Shumaker's Wealth Strategies Service Line, has been named President-Elect of the Tampa Hispanic Bar Association (THBA) Board of Directors. Luis previously served as Treasurer for the organization and has been committed to supporting the Hispanic legal community.

In his legal practice, Luis focuses on trust and estate planning, corporate transactions, tax analysis and controversy, and probate law. His clients often have diverse and complex business interests, and he brings a well-rounded perspective rooted in both corporate and tax law. Luis regularly advises clients on commercial transactions and entity formation strategies, offering a comprehensive and practical approach to legal problem-solving.

"Luis's election as President-Elect of the THBA is a testament to his leadership, integrity, and unwavering dedication to the legal profession and the Hispanic community," said Jaime Austrich, Vice Chair of the Management Committee and Tampa Managing Partner at Shumaker. "We are proud to support his continued efforts to create a stronger legal landscape in Tampa and beyond."

The Tampa Hispanic Bar Association promotes the advancement of Hispanics in the legal profession and provides a platform for its members to collaborate, serve the community, and support the next generation of legal professionals.
