COLUMBUS, OH — Skyler B. Henderson has joined Shumaker as a member of the firm's Corporate, Tax & Transactions Service Line, boosting the firm's capabilities in Columbus. She focuses her practice on general corporate, transactional, and estate planning matters.

Skyler works with businesses and their owners on entity formation, governance, and day-to-day corporate matters, and guides clients through mergers, acquisitions, and other commercial transactions. She also helps individuals and families protect and transfer wealth through thoughtful estate planning, ensuring that her clients' personal and business goals are aligned. Clients value her responsiveness and dependability at every stage of a matter.

"Skyler's addition strengthens our Corporate, Tax & Transactions team in Columbus and expands the support we can offer to business owners and families," said Austin Irving, Partner and Corporate, Tax & Transactions Service Line Lead. "Her ability to connect corporate and estate planning needs, together with her client-first approach, makes her an excellent fit for our clients and our firm."

Skyler earned her J.D. from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, where she served as Symposium Editor for the Business Law Journal and organized the symposium "AI on the Board: Algorithmic Decision-Making and Corporate Liability." She also earned CALI awards in Regulatory Compliance and Big Data Law. Skyler holds a B.A. in History and Political Science from Elon University.
