SARASOTA, FL – The law firm of Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that Mark D. Hildreth, partner in the Sarasota office, was a panelist at the Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association's Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Luncheon on April 10, 2018. The panel's topic of discussion was "Myth Busters: Involuntary Bankruptcy Cases Special Editions."

Mark serves as a co-administrator of Shumaker's Financial Institutions practice group. He works with his clients on all types of loan enforcement matters throughout Florida including commercial foreclosures, complex workout and Chapter 11 bankruptcy situations as well as litigation involving various types of business law and creditor rights. Mark also represents receivers and bankruptcy trustees on a select basis and handles cases involving assignments for the benefit of creditors.

Mark is Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law. In 1992, Mark was one of the first attorneys in the nation to receive Board Certification by the American Board of Certification. The American Board of Certification's programs are designed to identify and recognize those attorneys in consumer or business bankruptcy who have met or exceeded rigorous certification standards relating to experience, continuing legal education, integrity, and peer review; in addition to demonstrating a sophisticated understanding of the law in their specialty area. Mark is AV® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Mark received his J.D. and B.A. from Florida State University.
