COLUMBUS, OH. – Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that Columbus Partner David Axelrod will speak at the 35th Annual National Institute on Criminal Tax Fraud and the Eighth Annual National Institute on Tax Controversy on defense strategies in tax cases. The Conference is a yearly gathering which brings together high-level government representatives, judges, corporate counsel, and private practitioners engaged in all aspects of tax controversy, tax litigation, and criminal tax prosecutions and defense.

David's practice concentrates on responding to his clients' most difficult legal challenges, which may include civil and criminal tax controversies, other financial crimes, public corruption, regulatory enforcement matters, corporate investigations, and business litigation. He also regularly advises clients throughout the country on matters, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, corporate compliance programs, internal investigations, the False Claims Act, and health care fraud.
