Shumaker

JUNE 13, 2020 | NEWS

Shumaker Advisors Announces New Strategic Leaders

MEDIA CONTACT

Wendy M. Byrne
wbyrne@shumaker.com

TAMPA, FLA – Shumaker Advisors Florida, LLC announces the addition of new strategic team members Amy Maguire, Mike Hamby and Madeline Sullivan who have joined Shumaker Advisors serving clients on the local, state, and federal levels. With over twenty years of advocacy, Amy Maguire specializes in corporate philanthropy, strategic business development, and corporate communications. Amy's diverse experience spans across for profit and not-for-profit companies. Amy began her career in mergers and acquisitions with Fifth Third Bank then transitioned to a government and community relations career at Orlando Health. Amy led the Florida Trauma Alliance and crafted policy to protect and fund trauma centers. As the managing partner for a well-respected governmental affairs firm, Amy represented a diverse group of clients across all industries on the local, state, and federal levels of government. Continuing her advocacy in the corporate world, Amy was a Vice President at Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital and Coca-Cola Beverages Florida.

Mike brings over 30 years of experience in both the political and public affairs arenas, representing a broad range of national and state clients from non-profits to the nation's most respected organizations. Mike's expertise as a communications and political strategist has been engaged by numerous candidates and political campaigns at the national, state, and local levels. Mike has also led numerous statewide and local issue referendums. Most recently Mike was a key lead strategist for the successful Strengthen Our Schools Referendum in Hillsborough County. Mike served as Staff Counsel to former US Senator Howell Heflin, and as Special Counsel to the Democratic National Committee, and as Counsel to the Standing Committees to five Democratic National Conventions. He also served as the Executive Director of the Florida Democratic Party.

A graduate of the University of South Florida, Madeleine Sullivan serves as Policy and Communications Manager. She complements the team with her communications expertise as she develops and implements communications strategies.

The new leaders join policy experts and strategic partners Congressman David Jolly, Ed Miyagishima, Patrick Baskette, Carlye Morgan, Jennifer Wilson, and Joel Freedman. This team is dedicated to serving clients and making a positive impact in our community.

Ron Christaldi, President of Shumaker Advisors Florida, LLC said, "The depth and breadth of experience, relationship and focus on customer service are unparalleled. We are honored to welcome our new leaders and look forward to expanding services to our clients and to be even more INVOLVED in our community."

* * *

Shumaker Advisors Florida, LLC, is a full service advocacy firm providing government relations consulting on the local, state, and federal levels. The firm offers additional services including: issues management, coalition building, strategic communications, business to business development, and corporate philanthropy.

© 2026 Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP. All Rights Reserved. Privacy Policy/Disclaimer

Shumaker