COLUMBUS, OH – Erin Hawk, Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP's Chief Business Development Officer for Ohio, has been selected to serve on the Columbus Bar Association's newly created Practice Management Task Force.

This Task Force will identify how the CBA can be a centralized hub to help attorneys navigate the operational needs of running the business of their law practice. It will make recommendations to the CBA's Board of Governors by the end of March 2017 for ways the CBA can help its members in this area.
