TAMPA, FL – The law firm of Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, is pleased to announce that Tampa partner Jonathan Ellis has been certified in Condominium and Planned Development Law by The Florida Bar's Board of Legal Specialization and Education. Board certification identifies a lawyer with special knowledge, skills and proficiency, as well as a reputation for professionalism and ethics.

With a focus on the complex areas of community associations law (Condo and HOA), Jonathan's clients turn to him for his experience. He represents associations in general corporate matters, including providing legal opinions, overseeing meetings and elections and document review and amendments. With respect to litigation, he represents associations in collection of assessments enforcement of covenants to complex multi-party construction litigation and defense of an association's officers and directors. The foundation of his practice stems from the fact he is president of his own homeowners association and he can relate to the issues his clients are facing.

Founded in 1925, Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is a full-service law firm with more than 260 lawyers and seven offices in Toledo and Columbus, Ohio; Tampa and Sarasota, Florida; Charlotte, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; and Bloomfield Hills, Michigan.
