Tampa Attorney Matt Newton Certified by The Florida Supreme Court to Serve as Circuit Civil Mediator

TAMPA, FL – The law firm of Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, is pleased to announce that attorney Matt Newton has received certification from the Florida Supreme Court to serve as a Circuit Civil Mediator, allowing him to mediate civil disputes in the Circuit Courts throughout Florida. Matt is also qualified to serve as a Court-appointed Arbitrator in the State of Florida.

Matt has guided clients through numerous complex land use and zoning challenges, structured creative legal strategies for both new and growing businesses, and has resolved a wide variety of legal disputes through both traditional litigation and alternative strategies. Matt's experience also extends to state and local election and political law, including campaign compliance and recount navigation. Matt has additionally worked on civil rights matters through his diverse pro bono work, and has provided commentary on legal controversies in the media.
