Tampa Partners Greg Yadley and Will Blair Serve as Panelists at the Florida Bar Business Law Section's Update of the Florida Business Corporation Act CLE

TAMPA, FL – Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that Tampa Partners Greg Yadley and Will Blair served as panelists at the Florida Bar Business Law Section's Update of the Florida Business Corporation Act CLE this week in Miami and Tampa. The program provided attendees with a comprehensive overview of the changes made in the revised act, particularly focused on how these changes will affect Florida law practice for lawyers who represent Florida entities, and particularly Florida corporations. The program is especially timely, as the revised act will become effective on January 1, 2020.

Having worked across a broad range of industries and having handled transactions of all sizes, Greg brings a wealth of experience to clients in representing business entities, including closely-held and family businesses and large and small public companies. Practicing for more than 40 years has allowed him a deep understanding of what the various participants in a transaction are looking for across the spectrum, which enables him to successfully represent clients in a variety of matters.

Practicing for more than a decade, Will focuses on corporate and securities law, and mergers and acquisitions. His practical, solutions-oriented approach allows him to successfully counsel clients in all aspects of public and private company representation. Will focuses on understanding his clients' business objectives at the outset of a transaction and guides clients with practical, business-oriented solutions.
