TAMPA, FL –Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that lawyer Amanda J. Newlon appeared on Newsradio WFLA PM with Ryan Gorman and Newsradio WFLA AM with Jack Harris to discuss rights with respect to quarantines, missing work, and pulling children out of school.

Amanda is a member of the Health Care practice group and focuses primarily on health care regulation and compliance.

Prior to joining Shumaker, Amanda worked extensively in health care regulation and compliance, along with medical malpractice and nursing home litigation. She has conducted health care compliance and regulation research and prepared opinion letters providing legal advice to a large hospital chain regarding a variety of issues, including retention of medical records, medical staff governance, and compliance with federal and state regulations. In addition to her work in compliance and regulation, she is well-versed in medical malpractice and nursing home litigation. In litigation cases, her responsibilities have included extensive review of medical records, client reporting, and client representation at hearings and depositions.

Founded in 1925, Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is a full-service law firm with more than 260 lawyers and seven offices in Toledo and Columbus, Ohio; Tampa and Sarasota, Florida; Charlotte, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; and Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Shumaker is a premier provider of quality legal services. Whether it's commitment to clients or work in the community, involvement lies at the core of all of Shumaker's initiatives.
