COLUMBUS, OH – Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP is pleased to announce that Marketing Manager Wendy M. Byrne has graduated from the Leadership Upper Arlington (UA) program.

Leadership UA educates, engages, and inspires current and emerging leaders to take an active, effective role in the community. Established in 1988, Leadership UA provides programs that strengthen leadership skills, broaden understanding of local issues, and connect participants with others in the community.

A creative and outside-the-box thinker, Wendy has more than 20 years of marketing and business development experience. Enthusiastic and eager to learn something new every day, she enjoys sharing her knowledge and assisting lawyers in positioning themselves to grow their brand and business, in order to meet personal, professional, and firm goals. Wendy's passion for putting the pieces of the puzzle together is evident in her drive to help clients and lawyers connect and build meaningful relationships that are mutually beneficial.

In addition, Wendy has extensive public relations and communications experience. Accomplished in creating written and verbal messaging, she helps advance the needle through communications to help reach internal and external audiences.
