TOLEDO, OH – Toledo lawyer, Emily M. Morrison, has joined the Toledo Public Schools (“TPS”) Foundation Board for a three year term.

The TPS Foundation is a fundraising arm of TPS, whose mission is to promote quality public education and student success at TPS through supplemental funding for programs, academic initiatives and scholarships. Its mission is carried out through providing scholarships and grants to students and teachers within TPS.

Emily is a TPS graduate and an avid supporter of public education. She is a member of Shumaker’s Employee Compensation and Benefits practice group. Emily focuses her practice on creating, reviewing, and implementing benefit and compensation programs designed to meet the needs of single employer and multiemployer clients, and she assists clients on benefit issues in connection with corporate transactions.
