Shumaker Partner Ronald Christaldi Elected Vice Chair of the New College of Florida Board of Trustees

TAMPA, FL – Tampa Partner Ronald Christaldi has been named the next Vice Chair of the New College Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees is vested with a broad range of authority and responsibilities for governing and managing New College. Its specific powers and duties include responsibility for making cost-effective policy decisions, authority to adopt rules, authority to acquire and to dispose of real and personal property and for controlling college-owned property, responsibility to establish degree programs, and generally, authority and responsibility to do all things needed to administer New College.

"We are proud that New College alumnus Ron Christaldi will be serving as Vice Chair of our Board of Trustees," said Don O'Shea, President of New College. "He brings an impressive level of business and legal experience and an extensive network of community connections to our Board. We look forward to working with him in the coming years."

Mary Ruiz, incoming Chair of the Board of Trustees, said, "I look forward to working with Ron as we lead New College into the future and continue to build on this unique institution's role as the Honors College of Florida." Mary added, "Ron's successful career as a business lawyer and his community leadership roles embody New College's mission to prepare intellectually curious students for lives of great achievement."

Ron, a business lawyer representing clients in complex transactions and litigation, and the President and CEO of the public affairs firm Shumaker Advisors Florida, is well-known for his legal acumen and for building relationships within the community. Named one of the 100 most influential lawyers in the nation and one of
