"We are excited for Stefan to join our bankruptcy and insolvency team. His extensive experience representing creditors deepens our bench and allows our team to add value for our clients," said Bankruptcy Practice Administrator David Conaway.

Committed to achieving the most favorable results for his clients, Stefan focuses his practice on representing creditors, investors, and distressed debt lenders in bankruptcy, foreclosure, and collections. Stefan has extensive experience representing mortgage lenders in loan workouts of distressed real estate. Corporate and individual clients rely on Stefan for his collaborative approach and good judgment to help them achieve their goals.

Born and raised in Germany, Stefan moved to the United States where he pursues his passion for law and obtained his law degree from Stetson University College of Law. Stefan's vital courtroom experience includes having successfully argued highly contested cases in U.S. Federal Court..
